

Declaration of Independence

<sup>1</sup>We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; <sup>2</sup>that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; <sup>3</sup>that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. <sup>4</sup>That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, <sup>5</sup>deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; <sup>6</sup>that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, <sup>7</sup>it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it and institute a new government...
