

UTAH STUDIES

Goal: Offer a balanced look at the state of Utah and its diverse culture from Prehistoric times & up through the 1970's.

Dear Parents,

We would like to invite you to help us in our UT Studies experience this year. The following list contains items and subjects we will be covering this next year. If you have some of these artifacts or have lived through some of these historical events, we would like for you to place a check mark by listed item or historical event. Reviewing this list will help us know of our potential resources that can complement our learning experience and help bring history to life. Thank You for your assistance in this matter. With your help, we will have a very exciting year.

ITEMS WE ARE LOOKING FOR TO SHOW IN CLASS:

- Native American clothing – artifacts – tools – Headdress - rugs
